

Otto's

RESTAURANT

Otto's Restaurant at The Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin, honors a legacy that began in 1886, when German entrepreneurs Otto and Paulina Osthoff founded the original Osthoff Hotel. This timeless lakeside retreat quickly became a favorite among affluent travelers seeking relaxation and natural beauty. Over the years, the Osthoffs expanded the property to include a lakefront pavilion, charming guest cottages, and a tree-lined walkway leading to the depot, further elevating the guest experience.

In 1940, they introduced the Fun Spot Club—an Art Deco bar and dining venue that offered live entertainment and gambling, capturing the lively spirit of the era. Following the Osthoffs' tenure, the property changed hands several times, even serving as Camp Harrand, a drama and arts camp, before being purchased by Dairyland Investment Company in 1989. After its demolition in 1990, The Osthoff Resort was rebuilt and reopened in 1995, blending the grandeur of its historic roots with modern comforts.

Today, Otto's Restaurant carries that legacy forward, serving casual American cuisine crafted with locally sourced ingredients—including herbs from the resort's own garden. Guests enjoy a relaxed dining atmosphere, with seasonal outdoor seating that offers beautiful views of the lake.
